Jewelers of America names Towson-based jeweler Amanda Coleman Phelps of Nelson Coleman Jewelers to the 20 Under 40 List

Amanda possesses all the qualities and leadership skills that will help to pave the way for a brighter future and the next generation of jewelry industry professionals," says Jewelers of America President & CEO David Bonaparte.

Amanda was born and raised in Sparks Maryland where she attended Hereford High School. She currently resides in Baltimore County with her husband and two sons. At age 23 Amanda made the began working full time at Nelson Coleman Jewelers. In 2005, she completed the residence program at the Gemological Institute of America in California, becoming a Graduate Gemologist. Since then, Amanda has completed the Registered Jewelers program and received her Certified Gemologist Appraisers title with the American Gem Society in 2008. In 2015 Amanda started Mayflower Estate Buyers and Consulting, a jewelry company with a concentration in professional services such as large appraisals and B2B services like buying and selling events for other jewelers across the country. Amanda made the acquisition of American Gem Society retail jewelry store Jewelry By Designs in Woodbridge VA in March of 2020 and plans to expand Nelson Coleman Jewelers to its second location by 4th quarter of 2022.
